

Context:

John Fenwick, an aspiring artist, accepts a loan from Mr. Morrison to move to London to pursue his art career.

In London, he becomes infatuated with Madame de Pastourelles, a beautiful and intelligent artist.

Current Summary Segment

In Paris, he impresses Lord Findon with his work.

One afternoon, he writes a letter to Mrs. Morrison expressing sympathy for her husband's suicide.

Fenwick's wife becomes frightened when a tramp threatens to kill her and her child.

One afternoon, Fenwick goes to lunch with Madam de Pastourelles, a beautiful artist, and Eugenie, a wealthy benefactor. She promises to help him help customers.

Coherence Errors

New Character not introduced (CharE)

Missing reference to Event/Object (RefE)

Abrupt scene transition (SceneE)

Inconsistent (InconE)

Language & Fluency Errors

Unnecessary Repetition (RepE)

Ungrammatical /Nonsensical (GramE)

Unclear Coreference (CorefE)